KINETIC ROD FIBERS

CarbonFusion CF – Our best fibre for our premium carbon rods. The fibres used for these rods are short, thin and tightly woven together. The fibres are rolled in multiple layers creating a rod which is light, fast and sensitive.

CarbonTech CT – An excellent carbon which offers lightness and speed. The fibres are kept short combined with modern resin binding the layers together for a crisp action. The weight is kept low and the rods using CT fibres will give you great casting performance.

CarbonLiner CL – These fibres are mixed between glass fibres and carbon fibres. The rods using CL fibres are excellent fishing rods with a more parabolic action due to less stiffness and thicker fibres. You get a lot of modern fibres in a fishing rod for little money.

FibreStrong FS – Probably the toughest fibres on the market. Fibre glass combined with epoxy creates strong rods. Almost unbreakable. The fibres are thick and fairly soft, but you get a really great rod for fighting the fish. Due to the toughness of these rods you can fight even big fish on light rods. Great fun.

CrystalCross CC – Fibre glass never goes out of fashion. A very tough material, not very elegant, not very sophisticated but a fibre which should be considered as a real work horse. Value for money!

KINETIC HALIBUT JIGGER

One of the trophies in Norway is the halibut. It is an honour to catch one of these majestic flounders. The halibut can be caught in many ways, but jigging is still one of the best ways to get a take from a large halibut. Our halibut jig is mounted with one of the favorite dishes on the halibut menu – a fat squid. The jig is made so it can spin around its own axis which makes the jig very lively. Are you on the hunt for halibut, then don't forget your halibut jig.

KINETIC WADERS & BOOTS

Imagine walking in drizzling rain for 8 hours to reach a remote, small mountain lake in northern Scandinavia.
Imagine fishing a full week by a salmon river at the beginning of the season, when the water is cold and the weather is unreliable.
Imagine spending several days in big waves hunting for a monster se-atrout along the Scandinavian coastline.

These are just some of the challenges our Kinetic test team has to face. Some people wonder why these guys do it, but most anglers know that this is sometimes what it takes to catch a big fish. The wide range of Kinetic products are all designed and developed using the knowledge and experience from our test team. All waders and wading boots are made to fit and perform even when fishing gets extreme. The difference between a perfect and a not functional product can be some small important details, for example placing and size of pockets and choose of breathable lightweight materials as well as other high grade materials where it is needed. All of this has one purpose: To keep you warm and dry regardless of the weather.

Waders Size Chart

Choosing the right size is the key for optimal comfort and performance. The right fit must be snug but not too tight. Too tight fit can cause stretching of the seams and result in leakage.

The sizes are available in Standard, King and Long. An average built person's starting point is the Standard size. If you are slimmer and/ or taller the option is to go for the Long size. If you are heavier built, choose the King size.

To give you an indication of your size, follow the measurements shown in the tables below, using the 5 measuring points being Chest (1), Hip (2), Inseam (3), Outseam (4) and Sock length (5). This will give you a fairly good idea about the size you need, but trying the waders at your local retailer is always recommended.
